

One Riverfront

(formerly Riverfront Commission)

One Riverfront is charged with planning, advocating and implementing the many parts of a program to redevelop and reclaim the riverfront within the City and County. The members may be required to meet informally for approximately 5 to 10 hours each week in study sessions. Meetings are held on the third Tuesday every other month at 5:30 p.m., typically in Training Room A of the old courthouse at 544 Rood, Grand Junction, CO 81501.

The eleven-member board serves three-year terms that expire in July and are appointed jointly by the Grand Junction City Council, Mesa County Commissioners, Fruita City Council and Palisade Town Council. A City Council member serves on the Commission as ex-officio.
