

Historic Preservation Board

The Historic Preservation Board is responsible for recommending designation of historic resources to City Council for listing on the City Register of Historic Sites, Structures and Districts. The Board also reviews proposed alterations to designated sites as necessary and generally promotes historic preservation in the Grand Junction community. The Board meets the first Tuesday of the month at 4:00 p.m. at the Grand Junction City Hall, Community Development Conference Room, 250 N. 5th Street, Grand Junction, CO 81501.

The Board shall consist of five to seven members providing a balanced, community-wide representation. If a five member board, then three members shall be professionals or have expertise in a preservation-related discipline including but not limited to: history, architecture, planning, or archaeology. One member shall be a member of the Downtown Development Authority (DDA) Board or an employee of the DDA, and one member shall be a citizen at large.
