

Grand Junction Forestry Board

The Grand Junction Forestry Board acts as a reviewing body for the purpose of determining professional qualification and competence to engage in the business of cutting, trimming, pruning, spraying or removing trees by giving written, oral and practical license examinations. The board also makes recommendations to the City Council for the adoption of rules and regulations pertaining to the tree service business in the City, and it may hear complaints from citizens relating to the tree service business. The board meets the first Thursday of each month at 8 AM in the Parks Maintenance building at 2529 High Country Court.

Three of the five voting members and at least one alternate shall be selected from any of the following categories: professional arborist, nursery professional, landscape designer, pesticide applicator or otherwise trained or certified in a plant health industry. One member should be a representative of the Colorado State Forest Service if possible. Two of the members of the Board may be lay persons. Terms are for three years and expire in November.
